Mayor Rzeppa * 34 confirmed coronavirus cases in Trenton. Platooning out of staff members to keep everyone healthy and safe. Transfer station closed March 18. City buildings closed per Governor Whitmer's executive order. Yard waste collection starts Monday, April 6. New police department app. Residents should not use playground equipment. Thanks to city employees for going above and beyond to help residents. Stay home, wash your hands, only go out when you need to. Fireworks will not happen for the 4th of July this year.

Councilman LeFevre * Mayor Rzeppa and everyone in the city doing a great job.

Councilman Perugi * Asked Bill Hogan how long green refuge cans can be used as trash can. City Engineer Hogan responded.

Councilwoman Pate * Thanks to everyone for staying at home.

Wildlife Refuge Opening has been delayed. Thanked employees who are doing their best to do their jobs. Posts on Facebook page. Thanks to all the doctors and nurses. Hopes everyone stays healthy and safe.

Councilman Cabauatan * Thanks to our first responders and those on the front lines, those working in essential services, for sacrifices made. Thank you to everyone respecting the norm of social distancing and stay at home orders.

Councilwoman Baun-Crooks * Businesses that can stay open. Businesses trying to do the right thing by staying closed. Support your local businesses when we can re-open. Thanks to everyone for all the work they are doing.

Councilman Benedetti * Great city employees. White ribbons on trees for hospitals to show your support. If you plan on donating anything to the hospitals, drop off at the front doors. Budget.

City Engineer Hogan * Transfer station closed as of March 18. Special pick up, on the website you can find what day it is. Worry about invoicing later. Don't flush personal wipes or latex gloves down the toilet. Mayor Rzeppa responded.

Parks and Rec. Dir. Gonyea * Parks and Rec department has creative ways to connect with the community on Facebook page. Virtual Easter egg hunt the week of April 6-11; activities posted each day. No decision made on citywide garage sale cancellation.

City Treasurer McCullough * Staff consistently checking dropbox and mail. Waiving the fees on bills due March 31. Three percent fee will also be waived. Doing what we can to help residents.

Director of Police and Fire Voss * Keep yourself safe, everyone needs to do their part to get through this. Thanked Administration for their support.
